Park Theatre opened in May 2013 after three years of planning and building and is comprised of Park200 (a 200 seat theatre with stalls and circle), Park90 (a flexible studio space), the Morris Space (a multifunctional room used for rehearsals, workshops, readings and the majority of our creative learning activity); Park Pizza and additional facilities (including offices, dressing rooms and a green room). We are a registered charity and a company limited by guarantee, overseen by a non-executive Board of Trustees. We have a talented and dedicated team of 16 permanent staff, plus a pool of casuals and volunteer ushers.

Park Theatre presents work of exceptional calibre in the heart of Finsbury Park. We strive to ensure that our building, and the work on stage, is inviting and accessible to all. We work with writers, directors and designers of the highest quality to present compelling, exciting and beautifully told stories across our two intimate spaces. Our programme encompasses a broad range of work from classics to revivals with a healthy dose of new writing, producing in-house as well as working in partnership with emerging and established producers from both the commercial and subsidised sectors. Within the industry, we aim to be a creative home from home for actors, writers, directors and producers; we offer our spaces as a platform for development, rehearsed readings or sharings of new projects, with the aim of securing a future life either on our own stage or on another. We are invested and rooted in our local community and seek to work with local residents, businesses and partner organisations to create a better Finsbury Park for everyone. In everything we do, we aim to be warm and inclusive; a safe, welcoming and wonderful space in which to work, create and visit.

Park Pizza plays a crucial part of fulfilling this mission. It is the first port of call for the majority of visitors to our building and is thus an essential part of our strategy in developing our presence as a welcoming community hub within our local area. As we reopen the theatre after a protracted period of closure, Park Pizza is looking for an experienced Bartender with a passion for exceptional service to join this exciting restaurant opening.
